Please send my welcome package       Via Email       Via Snail Mail

- This is my first year at CMHH
- I do not have access to a computer and so need all information provided in "hard copy" format
- I would like personal help and tips with my choices of gift exchange and tidbit ideas
- I have special requests (Please include these on a separate sheet). We will pass your requests on to the appropriate person and do what we can to accommodate. )

Meals:

All meals from dinner Wednesday evening to breakfast Monday morning are included in the registration fee. Every effort is made to select foods that will appeal to a wide variety of people. Additionally, at their own expense, campers can supplement their meals or purchase snacks in the nearby town of Digby where there are several stores and restaurants to choose from.

Meals for Camp Mini Ha Ha are provided by the Annapolis Basin Conference Centre. We must provide them with information regarding food allergies by September 1.

If you have food allergies, please provide the information on a separate sheet and we will forward it to the Food and Beverage Manager. Allergy information received after September 1 may not be accommodated.

Accommodations:

Our rooms are located in South Lodge at the Annapolis Basin Conference Centre. Each camper will have their own room with twin bed and will share a bathroom with one other person. See below to designate a roommate. If you leave it blank, we will assign one for you.
